

Volunteer. Give. Make an Impact.
October 13–20, 2018
 United States and United Kingdom

Be a Part of Something Greater

Since 1998 IICF has hosted its annual Week of Giving, the largest ongoing volunteer initiative in the insurance industry. We bring together industry professionals throughout the United States and United Kingdom for a week of volunteer projects and service, designed to give back to our local communities where we live and work.

Join with thousands of industry associates for our most impactful week of the year by giving of your time and talent to benefit local community nonprofits.

Volunteer

More than 270,000 Hours of volunteer service completed for nonprofits

We were over 10,000 strong last year. Join us as we aim even higher in 2018!

Give

IICF has contributed over $31 Million in local community grants

Be an IICF Literacy Champion by donating* $25 in honor of IICF's 25th anniversary at www.iicf.org/literacy

Make an Impact

Hundreds of nonprofits supported by IICF grants and volunteerism in past 25 years

Unite with your insurance industry colleagues, competitors and clients in giving back to those in need.

*Proceeds support the IICF Early Literacy Initiative, which helps provide literacy opportunities for children in underserved communities. Volunteer or give to be an IICF Literacy Champion! Together we are helping communities and enriching lives!

Build your volunteer team today by:

- Inviting others to join you
- Challenging other departments to form their own teams too – maybe even challenge to a friendly competition of number of hours volunteered
- Joining an existing team or project
- Inviting clients as a teamwork opportunity

Enjoy a day of fun while helping others!
